

How to Lobby Your Decision-Makers for Osceola's Public Schools

How to Lobby Your Decision-Makers for Osceola's Public Schools

Why Lobby?

Special interests outside Florida and big corporations have deep pockets, hire full-time lobbyists, and monopolize your legislators' schedules so much they struggle to listen to their constituents. Lobbyists spend their days influencing lawmakers and members of the executive branch to introduce, create, or change laws. Corporations have their own lobbyists who work on behalf of individual companies. Lobbyists for foreign governments and businesses work on behalf of foreign countries. Nonprofit and special interest lobbyists work on behalf of various organizations and causes. Association lobbyists represent industries, trades, and professions. Full-time free-lance lobbyists work on behalf of any clients who hire them.

Osceola Schools Fast Facts

- ✓ In 2013, Florida ranked 40th out of 50 states in per student educational expenditures adjusted for regional cost differences; in 2011, Florida had ranked 36th (Source: Annie E. Casey Foundation KIDS COUNT).
 - Florida = $9,231
 - United States National Average = $11,841
- ✓ In 2016, Florida's Free and Reduced Lunch rate was 60%; Osceola's was 65%. (Source: Florida Department of Education)
- ✓ In 2016, Osceola received 2.15% of state education funding but had 2.24% of Florida's entire student enrollment. (Source: Florida Department of Education)
 - Osceola = $ 432,662,406, or $432.6 Million
 - Florida = $ 20,172,159,643, or $20.2 Billion
 - Osceola = 63,031 students
 - Florida = 2,816,824 students
- ✓ That 0.09% difference was still $18,722,343, or $18.7 Million, that Osceola schools did NOT receive for our students.

Now is the time for Osceola parents, students, and advocates of public education to be their own lobbyists, to act, and to be heard.

Tools for positive change are included in this document.

Ten Smart Steps for Parents, Students, and Others to be Heard

1. Find out who your legislators are, their committee assignments, and their positions and voting histories on issues important to you.

3. Find and join groups who share your focus and who work for the same goals.

Examples may include, but are not limited to, the Florida Parent-Teacher Association, Osceola County Education Association, Fund Education Now, and Whole Child Education, etc.

4. Write a letter or e-mail to your legislator.

Tips for writing an effective letter and an example are included in this document.

5. Follow-up your letter or e-mail with a phone call to your legislator.

- ✓ Before you call, plan your message carefully.
- ✓ Organize your thoughts, and make notes to help you keep focus.
- ✓ Discuss only one issue per phone call.

6. Visit your legislator in person.

- ✓ If possible, call or write in advance to make an appointment.
- ✓ If your legislator is not available, request to meet with his or her legislative assistant.
- ✓ Before your visit, plan your message carefully.

- ✓ Prepare a one-page fact sheet about your message for your legislator to help him or her remember what you present. The first page of this document includes one example.

General Tips for Your Visit

- Contact your legislator about a particular issue before the Legislature takes action on it.
- Make sure you understand the legislative process to help you express your ideas effectively.
- Explain to your legislator how you think current laws (or a particular bill, if it becomes law) will affect your children, your business, your community, and you.
- Be polite and reasonable, even if you disagree strongly with your legislator.
- Suggest a course of action and offer assistance.
- Keep your message positive, and focus on children.

7. Follow bills in committee, and read how your legislator voted.

- ✓ The Legislative Tracking system allows users to
 - create a free account,
 - subscribe to specific bills and committees and
 - receive automatic updates on any changes to them throughout the legislative process.

8. Keep writing, calling, and visiting your legislators to keep your message visible.

9. Show your appreciation for lawmakers who listen to you (e.g., thank you notes), and politely express your disappointment with those who do not.

10. Celebrate your victories, and “remember in November.” Vote!

Tips for Writing Effective Letters

- Type or print your letter legibly.
- Include your correct name, address, and phone number in the heading so that your legislator can respond to you.
- Address letters to members of the Florida House of Representatives as follows:

The Honorable John Doe
(Office address)

- Address letters to members of the Florida Senate as follows:

Senator Jane Doe
(Office address)

- Be certain you spell your legislator's name correctly and use the correct address. If you do not, you could lose your audience.
- Keep letters, email, and faxes brief. Never write more than one page. Concise written correspondence is more likely to grab and keep the reader's attention.
- Identify your issue or opinion at the beginning of the letter. Do not bury your main point under trivial text.
- Focus on one issue per letter.
- Support your opinions with facts. Your letter should inform the reader.
- Avoid abbreviations, acronyms, and technical jargon.
- For more impact, personalize each letter instead of sending the same letter to more than one legislator.
- Sign your name.
- Remember to write thank you letters to state representatives or senators who take a strong public stand in support of public education.

Sample Parent Letter

(Your address)

(Date)

The Honorable (Full name of representative) or Senator (Full name of senator)
(Office address)

Dear Representative or Senator (Last name of legislator),

I am a taxpayer who votes, and I am the parent of a _____ grader at _____ School in your district. I am concerned that my child is not getting a strong public education because the state does not appropriate adequate funds for public schools in Florida, especially Osceola County, and imposes too much standardized testing that limits choices for my child.

Please sponsor and work to pass legislation that makes Florida's education budget meet and exceed the national average, that returns local control to school boards, and that restores the role of parents to direct their children's education and future.

Thank you for all that you do on behalf of our state.

Sincerely,
